AD FORMS CLOSE THE 20th OF EACH MONTH.

Entered as second class matter October 13, 1956 at the post office of Newark, New Jersey under the act of March 3, 1879.

From Your Editor's Desk —

Hope you noticed the change of our new cover page, as we have mentioned in our previous issues, we are striving to bring our readers top quality in every respect. We are only in our 4th year of publishing and changes will be forth coming. We hope to have a different large photo each month of interest to our readers.

There's no getting away from it, we are just covering cost and expenses. You don't fall into anything, you've got to work for it. It costs money, time and long working hours. The midnight oil has burned many times to the wee hours in the morning and the weekends were used to catch up. It is very hard to visualize the amount of time and work necessary to produce each issue. As the publisher and editor I enjoy my job or I wouldn't be doing it. But to continue to grow with quality we will need your help. New subscriptions and ads from you and your friends will help us continue doing a better job. Ask your friends to subscribe if they already haven't and your favorite dealer to send in an ad.

GRADING SERIES

You no doubt noted our complete series on pages 10-11. It took a bit of doing but we enjoyed doing it and hope you like it. We have made up extra sheets of these on a heavier coated stock. Many of our readers, clubs and dealers may like to have some for display, decorative purposes, references and gifts. We are accepting orders for these at 25¢ each postpaid or (3) for 50¢; orders of 10 or more at 15¢ each. These series would make wonderful gifts for attending members at your club meetings and also for reference and debates. Order yours now while they last.

Charles Augelli, a dealer of rolls was a consistent early advertiser in our pages. Charles being a specialist in rolls for a number of years resumes his large advertising with a number of bargains on the back cover.

MINT SUPERINTENDENT

Last month we took a candid photo of the U.S. Phila. Mint Supt., Mrs. Rae Biester, who appeared on the TV program "What's My Line". We regret to say our TV set came out beautifully but the picture was blank. About one year ago I took a photo of the famous singing star Dinah Shore during her TV program on our TV set. I was surprised to see it came out good Unless Mrs. Biester, sends us a photo of herself for her most ardent followers (Coin Collectors). We'll settle for the fact she is a wonderful and a capable Mint Director for we had the pleasure of meeting her personally on our last visit to the Phila. Mint in May, 1956.

NEW BROADCAST

August 5th, your editor and associate Nick Salimbene made their 3rd appearance over the air. This time it was WABC a larger broadcasting station. The Happiness Exchange Program which broadcasts nightly 12 midnight to 6 AM on WABC, 770 on your dial invited us for another of our popular Numismatic Talks which lasted 90 minutes. Big Joe and Jim Gordon share 3 hours each of the radio time, we spent our time with the latter part of the show and Jim Gordon, many of you may have heard of Jim, as he is a prominent figure in sports broadcasts. We spoke to several hundred thousands of listeners on how to start a collection, the values and elaborated on rare, interesting coins and currency. About 10 minutes were allowed for phone calls. One lady called asking the value of two quarters she had, standing liberty 1916 and 1917. When told about $50. she quickly asked where she could get this premium, a number of dealers, the phone directory and Flying Eaglet advertisers was suggested as buyers.

NEWARK COIN CONVENTION

When writing for information to dealers or collectors, be kind enough to enclose a stamp for a response. It's been my pleasure to say practically all dealers and collectors are honest and fair. No trades are final until both parties are satisfied. On purchases it is customary to give at least a 3 day satisfactory refund.

GRADING STANDARD

PROOF—Coin, a mirror-like finish, especially struck for collectors on polished metal blanks and struck by slower hydraulic press to obtain best feature lines.

UNCIRCULATED made for general circulation has lustre but never reaches circulation. A Gem Unc. is unusually well struck has lustre no scratches, rubbings or mars.

EXTRA FINE & A. U.—about same. Coin is about uncirculated, slightly worn on high points and may have some mint lustre.

V. FINE—Has been circulated but all features and lettering are sharp.

FINE—Has all features and lettering but not sharp. Liberty is readable.

V. G.—Has border rims most features and lines visible. Part of Liberty visible.

GOOD—All features and lines worn but visible.

FAIR—Considerably worn.

POOR—Considerably worn smooth, or corroded, good only as space filler.

This grading is used only as a guide to help you and is a general medium used by all dealers and collectors in the Numismatic field.

POINTS TO LOOK FOR ON SOME POPULAR COINS.

1 CENT LINCOLN: The lines on wheat stalk and Lincoln's ear are a good spot to look for wear. On a coin classed as very good most lines should be showing, on a coin graded fine they should be sharp.

5 CENT LIBERTY: E Pluribus Unum is legible on coins graded good, clear on coins graded very good. One graded fine should have full liberty.

5 CENT BUFFALO: On a good coin edge of word Liberty may be slightly worn, but on one graded very good the word Liberty is clear and one-half of horn shows, a fine coin should have nearly a full horn, a coin classed as very fine has full horn and tail shows on hip.

10 CENT MERCURY: Watch lines on fescues, on coins classed very good some fescues lines show, a fine coin should have most all lines.

FOR BEGINNERS who are just starting to collect, here are a few suggestions and some advice. First, a coin guide book is a must. They can be purchased for $1.00 or more for helpful information: on care, condition, value, amount minted, types, how coins are made, and other news of help and interest. Most coins can be found in circulation. As you are making your set always try to improve the worn coins. Value of coins depends greatly on the condition. Never clean or polish coins unless you are experienced. If you must try, use a common date coin. There are handy cleaning kits available for this purpose. Coin insert folders and other supplies can be obtained at your dealer. You may also notice that the age of old coins do not make them rare. There are some late date coins minted that are worth more than some hundreds of years old. What makes one coin worth more than another are by these factors: Amount of coins minted, availability, collectors demand and any unusual die strikes. Coins can be obtained through purchases, by auctions or trading with collectors. Mint sets can be bought by writing the Treasury Dept., U. S. Office of Treasury, Washington 25, D. C., at face value, plus postage and handling. To obtain Proof Sets of current year send $2.10 money order to Supt. Phila. Mint 16th and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. You may order as many sets as you wish. Commemorative half dollars are authorized periodically by Congress. These halves when issued are not sold by the mints, they are turned over to a Commission authorized by Congress at face value. The Commission then sells the halves at a premium.

PAPER MONEY ROUND-UP

OLD BILLS — OLD DENOMINATIONS

By Harold Don Allen

Anyone have two fours for an eight?

If you think the question is far-fetched, treat yourself to a second look at our picture of the bank note. What you will see is one of the very few illustrations of an obsolete $8 bill.

Such a note would have been good money in this country at a time when a man quite reasonably could have reached for his billfold and produced a $3 or a $4. An $8 was unusual even for then!

The note is issued by The Merchants' Bank of South Carolina, at Cheraw, S.C. It is not signed, numbered or dated, but its style suggests that its vintage harkens back eleven or more decades. Engravers were Draper, Toppan, Longacre & Co., Philadelphia and New York. The bill is printed in black on this white paper. The reverse is blank.

The odd denomination reflects a tradition of the era of private banking, when each bank did everything it could to circulate its own notes. A note in circulation to a large extent represented a free loan of the face amount. So, early notes were striking in their appearance, partly to defy the counterfeiter and partly to give them the look of "good money", which the public had come to expect. Unusual denominations simply were an effort to produce a bill that would capture the public's fancy, at a time when bank note traditions were far less firmly established than now. Many early banks offered bills in denominations $1, $2, $3 and $5. Canada, at the same period, showed a fondness for $1, $2, and $4 notes; sixes, sevens and twenty-fives have since been experimented with, and failed.

Old "broken" bills, such as the one illustrated, have a sizable, growing following among United States collectors, and with reason. Many of the notes possess distinct beauty, and some represent virtually the only record of pioneer banking institutions which failed. Collectors priding themselves in local history gain great satisfaction from tracing down early notes of their own town, county or state. Often such bills can be had for, at most, a few dollars. Of many relatively common types, supplies remain in dealers' stocks. As long as this is the case, prices are modest. Higher values attach themselves to scarcer bills which only come on the market when a collection is being broken up, or a new "discovery" of old notes is made.

But a few hundred more collectors in this field could dry up available sources of supply.

Several characteristics of the illustrated note bear emphasizing, with their implications. The note is made out "to or bearer", a form often seen on the earlier notes. The first person to whom the bill was presented was expected to enter his name. The allegorical vignette, representing produce of farm, of industry, and of the sea, is an old tradition in bank note art.

The fact that the note bears neither date nor validating signatures indicates that it never was money. No doubt it was left over, unissued, when the bank failed. This is not unusual with "broken bank" currency. However, the note would be regarded by most as more desirable if it bore authentic pen-and-ink dating, signatures and numbers.

With many early banks, though, it is only unsigned bills (perhaps in complete sheets as printed) that prove available in sizable supply.

COIN CLUB NEWS - REPORTS

LIBERTY BELL COIN CLUB

Meetings once a month are being held even during the summer month. At the July meeting, the attendance was the largest to date - 70 attended. One feature was a display of Assay Medals by Harry Forman. These Assay Medals were made in various types of metal and were issued by the U.S. Mint and presented to members of Mint Assay Committee as a token reward for the services they rendered.

President of our club, Pat Vassalluzzo spoke once again about the idea of having future Proof coins with mint marks on them. Secretary Joseph Weintraub read letters he had received from many collectors who said that they like the idea of mint marked proof coins.

—Joseph Weintraub, Sec'y.
1941 Devereaux St.
Phila. 49, Pa.

TORONTO COIN CLUB

The meeting of July 26th was well attended in spite of the hot weather and holiday time. President F. C. Jewett presided. Regret was expressed that our scheduled speaker Mr. John J. Pittman, Rochester was unable to attend due to another unexpected commitment.

A Quiz Program was then introduced, consisting of six coins or tokens which were to be identified. Russell Martel who successfully identified all of them was declared the winner by the Honorable Judges, Dr. J. S. Wilkinson and Mr. Bruce Brace.

The Speaker for the August 23 meeting will be our Past President, Mr. V. G. Greene, who will talk on the A.N.A. convention recently concluded in Los Angeles.

BAKERSFIELD COIN CLUB

The clubs monthly paper, the "Cuneus Wedge" reports the club has over 100 members now. The club is about 18 months old with attendance average of (50) members monthly. The Treasurer Jon Brown, has generously offered his home and swimming pool for the July meeting, with Hot Dogs, Cokes and Ice Cream.

The Cuneus Wedge also reports, during 1957, 368,888 ounces of gold coins were received and melted by the U.S. Mint.

PACIFIC COAST NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

The 43rd Anniversary, held a banquet in June. The President presented Grant P. Hatch with a dollar bill dated 1865, the year of his birth, in honor of his 93rd birthday.

William G. Wilson, was introduced as the oldest member joining the PCNS in 1828.

A large cake with two coins dated 1915 and 1958 was used to celebrate the anniversary.

—Mrs. Harry Cutler, Secy.

NEW JERSEY NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

The 295th meeting of the N. J. Numismatic Society was held at the Military Park Hotel, Thursday evening, August 14th with 16 present. George Wait the Vice President presided in the place of the President who was called away on account of the A.N.A. Convention in Los Angeles. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Guests were introduced and Ray Gallo of the Bronx Club invited those present to the 25th Anniversary of the Bronx Club to be held the fourth Wednesday in October at the Grand Concourse Hotel. Harold Don Allen, President of the Montreal, Canada Club here on an extended course at Rutgers University showed colored slides and spoke on collecting Canadian of which he has a collection going back quite a few years in the history of the Dominion Banks. Canada it seems does not guarantee bank deposits but one bank will help another in emergencies. A gifted speaker H. D. Allen, and more power to his elbow. Some of us will return his visit some day. Time was taken out to view the exhibits which each exhibitor described, some of which material was of fine quality. The meeting was adjourned at 10:30 P.M. after much exchange of information mutually.

—James A. Brown, Secy.-Treas.

BROOKLYN COIN CLUB

The 302nd meeting of the Brooklyn Coin Club was held on Wednesday evening, August 6th in the Gotham Room of the Hotel Grenada. There were 34 in attendance. The meeting opened at 8:00 P.M. and President Frank W. Porcaro presided. Minutes were read and accepted. The Secretary's bill for printing was approved by the President to the rules. He spoke on preparation for member suspension. Election of officers, according to the constitution, all members for office shall be in good standing. Proposal to seek reduced rates of postage for our meeting notices and save about twenty-five dollars a year. Suggestions also were made to have more auctions to raise money for our treasury. Many other ideas were aired, such as donations, kitty, bourse and members largess. Ray Gallo spoke about the Metropolitan Convention and indicated the Park Sheraton Hotel would be used next year for this affair.

Seems it will be the same time as the Kentucky Derby like last year. Planning is confictory. J.A. Brown and Max Kaplan spoke about the "Happiness Exchange" program on Station WABC from midnight on who boosts the hobby of coin collecting and who are putting out a set of Commemorative Medals at the recommendation of James A. Brown. These are in aluminum, bronze and gold plate. Lillian Marmor our only woman member finally put in an appearance after a long absence. There was a twenty minute recess for the viewing of the exhibits. Two new members were inducted, Isadore Markowitz and Stanley F. Parow.

LAZY OR TILTED ONES

Editor's note: The photo cuts and letter are in reference to our inquiry of the "Lazy One" on page 7 of the August issue.

I suppose, after Collecting Mint Errors and die-break oddities for over 50 years, that I should know and speak with some authority about LAZY ONES—since I have different varieties in my own collection.

During the past, these so-called LAZY ONES have been known variously as: Tilted, Oblique, Slanting and Crooked Dates. They do have a LAZY and tired appearance. For the information of the uninitiated LAZY lettering may also be found. Now for the $64 question as to the why and wherefore of the tired and LA-ZY ONE'S. Most of these are, in my humble opinion, merely diebreak varieties. About a decade ago, Tilted and off center mint letters were all the rage. We were informed on good authority that all these varieties were struck at the mint with "filled" dies, bits of debris, metal dust etc. so clogging the dies that they become "twisted" and sometimes broken. When this occurs, in the last instance, we then have "Missing Date" digits and voided lettering, another variety of diebreak.

All the old-fashioned coin boards had an opening for the 1922 "broken D" which was tilted and, back then, you just didn't have a complete set until that opening was filled. Remember?

You may use this letter in full or in part for the information of your readers, if you wish to do so.

SWEEPSTAKES CONTEST

Bill Olcheski, Stamp and Coin
Editor who has a section for collectors in the Army Times, a servicemen's paper from Washington, D.C. says, servicemen can also enter this contest. All they have to do is fill their name and address on a Canada Dry Sweepstakes Ticket obtained free at any PX or Commissary.

If their ticket is picked, they win the grand prize, being the horrible task of shoveling all the silver dollars they can in 5 minutes. Other prizes are less time.
I'll settle for 15 seconds! How many dollars can you shovel in 5 minutes? The sponsors offer a guarantee of $3,000 per minute, should you feel under par. Last years' top winner scooped up $37,500 in 5 minutes, thus becoming the highest paid shoveler in history. Tickets should be mailed no later than August 30.

To make certain at least one overseas serviceman is a winner
a special drawing will be made overseas, with a 1 minute go at the pile. The winner will be flown via American Airlines with expenses paid. The payoff will be staged on Dave Garroway's NBC
TV show "Today".

— LETTERS —

Dear Frank:

Enclosed herewith is my check for $5. to cover another year's subscription to your fine magazine and 4 months advertising (25 words).

May I again let you know how well pleased I am with the results from your paper. The returns are most gratifying especially when one considers that it is the supposedly slack summer season and also recession times. None of these adverse influences seem to reduce the responses - in fact we have had the best sales of all our experience - thanks to your publication.

—John H. Small
Buffalo, N. Y.

—O—

Dear Sir:

Just a line to let you know I just got my first copy of the Eaglet and think it is great. I will be a regular reader of it from now on. I would like to report something for the find of the month. You might call it two lucky finds. Last week within the space of three days, I received my change from a purchase made in a local store, first a 1909-S vdb Lincoln cent, and three days later, again in change, I acquired a 1932-D Washington Quarter. You can imagine the surprised feeling! Both coins are in V.G. condition. This is probably the only time I may ever be so lucky to get any of the better coins in such a way. It just goes to show that you have a chance of a good find if you watch your change.

—Donald Anthony
Dayton, New Jersey

Dear Sir:

I would like to tell you about some of my finds:

1947 Lincoln cents, Fine obv. while the rev. is blank; 1917-S on obv. Half dollar G.; 1917-S on rev. Half dollar G.; Lincoln cent 75% blank. The part that shows is V.G.+

A couple of months ago I purchased a 1922 - no D cent unc. with other mint errors for $20. Now the regular 1922 - no D unc. cent in the 1958 Red Book lists it $100.

This may not seem much but I am only 13 years old.

—Bill Anderson
Hicksville L.I., N.Y.

P.S. I hope and pray that some day one of my finds or something else besides an ad will get printed in your great magazine. Keep up the good work.

—O—

Dear Mr. Spadone:

I have thoroughly enjoyed your publication during this past year and for that reason now enclose my check for $5.00 for a 3-year subscription.

Thank you very much for the 6-inch plastic ruler sent to me. I have used it so much in the short time I have it and find it most useful.

YOU WON'T NEED CASH 50 YEARS FROM NOW

The magic of electronics will eliminate the use of money and checks within 50 to 75 years, according to electronics engineers.

Instead of money, everybody will have an electronic card for bank deposits and withdrawals, charge payments and cash buying, says Warren S. Stevens, assistant editor of Modern Office Procedures magazine.

Electronics engineers, says Stevens in an article entitled "Will Money Go Out of Style?" have the know-how to build all parts of a new monetary system that completely eliminates the need for cash, coin and checks. The only barrier is the time it will take to change over from the present cash and check setup.

Key to the new system, Stevens says, is a plastic-coated card, about the size of a standard identification card, with a complete printed circuit—the basis of an electronic meter that contains the amount of dollars available to the user. Deposits will send the meter up; payments will send it down, in amounts as small as one cent.

Each card will contain visible identification and an invisible electronic code number assigned to the owner. If the card is lost or stolen, all withdrawals against that number can be stopped electronically.

Users will have a handsize "reader" to show how much money is left in their electronic pocketbooks. Money totals will not be visible on the card, only on the reader when the card is inserted in it.

You'll be able to use your card to buy goods and pay bills. Each time you "spend" some of its value, the correct amount will be withdrawn from the card by electronic equipment at the place where you buy. Simultaneously, this data will be transmitted to a central bank, deducted from your account, and added to the vendor's.

You won't even have to hunt for change when you want to buy something from a vending machine or put a dime into a parking meter. Just insert your money card and the machine will deduct the proper amount.

"Banks," predict Stevens, "will become huge electronic data-processing cents, handling not dollars and coins but electronic impulses. Checking accounts will be balanced in split-seconds, and check forgeries and embezzlements will soon be forgotten crimes."

CANADIAN SECTION

The following is an explanation of the ARNPRIOR dollar, as requested on page 15 of the August issue of the Eaglet.

THE "ARNPRIOR" DOLLAR

A certain firm in Arnprior, Ont., decided to give each of its approximate 2000 employees a brand new silver dollar for Christmas in 1955, and upon finding that the banks couldn't supply them they contacted the Royal Canadian Mint who even though having already completed and disposed of its scheduled run of dollars for 1955 decided to oblige by minting the amount required. This of course entailed re-polishing the dies and the minting of a few specimens, and it is thought that it was in the polishing of the dies that the die for the reverse was partially filled in where the lines appear at the front of the canoe as these lines are quite fine and may easily be plugged up.

However, regardless of the reason, it is this specially minted lot of dollars for the firm in Arnprior that lacks a line and a half in front of the canoe - hence the "ARNPRIOR" dollar.

BUST TYPE HALF

LETTERED EDGE SHIFT

Dear Sir:

I have received your sample copy of the Flying Eaglet Numismatic Magazine and liked it so much that I immediately sent in for my subscription.

I would like to make note of the fine description in the Aug. issue of the bust type half dollar with lettered edge. I too have an 1811, small 8, half dollar with the same error on the edge. It reads HALFA DOLLAR CENTS. The word fifty is printed over the word dollar starting with the first L. The coin is in very fine condition. Am looking forward to your future issues.

CANADA'S COINAGE SERIES - IV.
TEN CENTS, SILVER — HISTORIC CHALLENGING
By Harold Don Allen

Canada's silver ten cent piece — never called a "dime" — is unchanged in format in 100 years, which makes it nine years older than the nation. A ten cent denomination was included in the first decimal coinage struck for the Province of Canada (Quebec and Ontario) in 1858. A coin of similar size and composition was produced for New Brunswick in 1862 and 1864 and Newfoundland inaugurated its decimal circulation with such a piece in 1865. But it was not until 1870 that the young Dominion of Canada released her first coinage, which included 1,600,000 of the ten cent silver coin. Seventy-five dates of this federal ten cents have appeared, with a number of interesting sub-varieties. Like all Canada's coins, these pieces broadly type themselves by reigning monarchs, and a type collection should not be difficult to acquire, though individual dates may be decidedly scarce.

Prior to 1908, Canadian ten cent pieces without mint mark were the work of the Tower Mint, London, England. The "H" mint mark, known on some or all the ten cent coins of eleven dates in this series, indicates a piece struck at the private Heaton Mint, Birmingham, England, with which the Tower Mint sub-contracted. Since 1908, all Canadian coinage has been struck at the Royal-Canadian Mint, Ottawa, with no mint mark employed on decimal coinage for Canada. (The "C" mint mark appears on certain Newfoundland coins and on Ottawa-produced gold sovereigns.)

It is interesting to note that there are no less than thirteen dates since 1870 for which no ten cent pieces were struck, including the entire period from 1922 to 1927. Unlike the silver five cent and fifty cent pieces of the same decade, however, no ten cent coins are considered to have been melted down. Referring to an earlier period, on the other hand, melting down of surpluses might be one explanation of the demonstrated scarcity of all silver denominations of 1875 coins.

Ten cent pieces dated prior to 1910 have become virtually unobtainable from circulation, except for the odd specimen marred by extreme wear. Even coins dated in the later years of the George V reign are difficult to pick up in presentable shape. So the accompanying chart must be modified in the reader's mind to present a true picture of present rarity. Among Victorian and Edwardian pieces in acceptable preservation, the first half of the chart offers a fair graphing of comparative scarcity, if the 1875 confusion is borne in mind. The second part of the chart is a good picture of today's circulation, but the older dates that turn up are definitely worn.

Of the attractive Schooner Bluenose reverse, introduced with the coinage of George VI and retained on present (Elizabeth II) coins, earlier dates are showing wear, but only the slim 1948 release (422,741) calls for much of a search.

The ten cent coin, generally, is one of which a fair representation can be obtained from pocket change — but the Canadian collector of this series has a right to lament not being born — or starting collecting — twenty years sooner, when most of today's scarcities could fairly easily be found.

The legendary "1936 dot" ten cents we have included in the statistics for 1936, regardless of the fact they were struck the following year. What with 192,000 missing dots, or missing "dimes", we prefer to affirm the variety as non-collectible, and point out that if one turned up with dot missing, any collector would unhesitatingly class it as "1936". Hence, our statistic.

The 1947 "Maple Leaf" variety, which exists for the same sort of stop-gap reason as the fabled "dot", is plentifully accessible — in fact, as noted, it is the normal 1948 which proves difficult to acquire.

Varieties exist in several other dates, notably the 1893 and 1913, but the ten cent series lacks the great diversity of minor variations characteristic of Canada's George VI fifty cent coins.
